WHAT IS "HERITAGE LAB"?

As part of the adaptive reuse of the open-air cinema of Lumbardhi in Prizren, the "Heritage Lab" workshop is organized with the aim of enhancing the skillset of students of architecture, cultural heritage, ecology and urban planning who are passionate about the cultural and natural heritage of the country and at the same time are willing to learn how to preserve it through adaptive reuse methods.

"Heritage Lab" at the open-air cinema of Lumbardhi in Prizren will provide students with opportunities to listen to lectures by international and local experts in the field of adaptive reuse of historical buildings. In addition to lectures, students will do practical work through which they will learn the methods of adapting historical buildings for today's needs. Applicants are required to have good communication skills in English, since this will be the official language of the workshop.

The practical work will be carried out at the open-air cinema, which will be eventually revitalized and serve as an urban garden and social and cultural space.

"Heritage Lab" will be held from 21 April – 2 May, at Kino Lumbardhi – Prizren.

This workshop is organized by CHwB Kosovo and Lumbardhi Foundation.
